MISSION STATEMENT

Michigan State University, a member of the Association of American Universities and one of the top 100 research universities in the world, was founded in 1855. We are an inclusive, academic community known for our traditionally strong academic disciplines and professional programs, and our liberal arts foundation. Our cross and interdisciplinary enterprises connect the sciences, humanities, and professions in practical, sustainable, and innovative ways to address society's rapidly changing needs.

As a public, research-intensive, land-grant university funded in part by the state of Michigan, our mission is to advance knowledge and transform lives by:

- providing outstanding undergraduate, graduate, and professional education to promising, qualified students in order to prepare them to contribute fully to society as globally engaged citizen leaders
- conducting research of the highest caliber that seeks to answer questions and create solutions to expand human understanding and make a positive difference, both locally and globally
- advancing outreach, engagement, and economic development activities that are innovative, research-driven, and lead to a better quality of life for individuals and communities, at home and around the world.

CONGRATULATORY LETTER

DEAR SPARTAN GRADUATES:

Congratulations — you did it! Through your curiosity, dedication and hard work, you have earned a most valuable credential — your degree, which will open opportunities as you pursue your career and throughout your life as a Michigan State alum.

Here, you've had unique opportunities to learn and to explore, and maybe even change directions once or twice. Perhaps you surprised yourself with your ability to overcome challenges and setbacks.

Beyond the knowledge you've gained in the classroom, the experiences you've had as a member of this scholarly community will enrich the life ahead of you. You've had opportunities to know people from different places, backgrounds and circumstances, broaden your point of view and extend your horizons.

You have also grown in your capacity for achievement, confidence and character. You move forward equipped to pursue a career of accomplishment and a life of purpose and meaning. I have no doubt you are prepared to make a difference in the world.

As you move toward the next part of your personal journey, I encourage you to stay curious, engage with your community and contribute to the society around you. When you have the chance to give back to those who have supported you, I hope you do that, too. You are joining a proud global network of fellow alums more than half a million strong, united by your shared experiences here on the banks of the Red Cedar River.

Go Green!

DEAR GRADUATES:

I am honored to extend my congratulations as you celebrate your graduation from Michigan State University. You have successfully completed the journey through your degree program to arrive at this capstone moment, with everything you have learned at our top global public research university fortifying you for all that lies ahead.

You have studied here during a time of great promise and positive momentum for MSU, with many opportunities emerging at the university, in the state of Michigan, and around the world. Our students and faculty are achieving new levels of excellence and advancing the university by way of their commitments to innovation, to discovery, and to making a positive difference, both locally and globally. Your many and varied accomplishments contribute to MSU's excellence and are a source of great pride for all of us who comprise the university's leadership, faculty, academic staff, and staff, whose shared mission is to support your success.

The value of your MSU degree will continue to be an asset that serves you well throughout your career, in whatever direction it takes you. You can be confident in your qualifications and capabilities as you move from here to the next chapter of your life. Your expansive MSU experiences will provide valuable insights for a lifetime, along with cherished memories and enduring friendships.

While your graduation signals a departure from one stage of your connection with MSU, it also marks the beginning of another. You now join a much larger family of Spartans, and I encourage you to stay engaged with the life of the university while you move through the many exciting stages of your life.

As you celebrate your success at MSU, I wish you the very best in your personal and professional pursuits.

Sincerely,

Thomas D. Jeitschko, Ph.D.

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Michigan State University, founded in 1855, is a leader in realizing the ideal of democratizing education and knowledge. Officially named the Agricultural College of the State of Michigan, it became the model for all land-grant institutions established by the Morrill Act, passed by Congress in 1862. The research and knowledge developed at land-grant institutions provides practical solutions that make a difference in the lives of individuals and in communities. Now, as a major public research university with global reach, Michigan State University continues this tradition with its commitment to advancing knowledge and transforming lives across the state, the region, and around the world.

From its beginnings on the site where Beaumont Tower now stands, the East Lansing campus has grown from 677 to 5,200 acres, and from three to 545 buildings. Today, nearly 20,000 acres are used throughout Michigan for agricultural and natural resources research and for education.

MSU has more than 50,000 students from all 83 counties in Michigan, all 50 states, and more than 130 other countries. There are more than one-half million Spartan alumni living around the globe.

Since its agricultural beginnings, MSU has grown to 17 degree-granting colleges offering more than 200 programs of study, including graduate and graduate professional education. The Honors College attracts academically talented scholars and enables these students to pursue individualized, enriched programs of study.

Research and other grants total nearly $600 million in 2014–15. The top federal funding agencies include the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE), the National Science Foundation, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, U.S. Agency for International Development, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the U.S. Department of Education, and the U.S. Department of Defense. Other externally funded research programs include the MSU–U.S. DOE, Plant Research Laboratory, the Center for Advancing Microbial Risk Assessment, the Great Lakes Bioenergy Research Center, the Energy and Automotive Research Laboratory Centers, the Composite Vehicle Research Center, the U.S.–China Center for Research on Educational Excellence, the Center for Advanced Study of International Development, and the Center for International Business Education and Research.

The National Superconducting Cyclotron Laboratory is the premier rare isotope research facility in the nation. In December 2008, the U.S. DOE selected MSU to design and establish the Facility for Rare Isotope Beams (FRIB). The proposed $730 million facility will bring together an international community of leading scientists. Their work will help unlock the mysteries of the universe and promote breakthrough applications for medicine, security, and industry.

MSU Extension reaches into all 83 counties in Michigan to provide practical, university-based knowledge. The AgBioResearch encompasses the research of more than 300 scientists in a network of 13 research centers across the state. Their work ranges from agricultural production, alternative energy and biofuel production, food safety and environmental stewardship to childhood obesity, community development, and the quality of life of Michigan youth and families.

University Outreach and Engagement connects faculty with external audiences and constituencies to address community issues through research and collaboration. MSU Global extends academic and professional degree and certificate programs to off-campus learners.

MSU is a national leader in education abroad among U.S. public universities with more than 275 programs on all continents in more than 60 countries. Nearly 3,000 MSU students participate in education abroad each year.

Michigan State University is a member of the Association of American Universities, the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities, the American Council on Education, the American Council of Learned Societies, the Council of Graduate Schools, and the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation).

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FOR MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Michigan State University occupies the ancestral, traditional and contemporary lands of the Anishinaabeg – Three Fires Confederacy of Ojibwe, Odawa and Potawatomi peoples. In particular, the university resides on land ceded in the 1819 Treaty of Saginaw. We recognize Michigan's 12 federally recognized Native Nations, historic Indigenous communities in Michigan, Indigenous individuals and communities who live here now, and those who were forcibly removed from their homelands. In offering this land acknowledgement, we affirm Indigenous sovereignty, history and experiences.

CEREMONY LYRICS

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O, say, can you see
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed
at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.
O, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free,
and the home of the brave.

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

ALMA MATER*

M.S.U., We love thy shadows,
when twilight silence falls,
Flushing deep and softly paling,
o'er ivy-covered halls.
Beneath the pines we'll gather,
to give our faith so true,
Sing our love for Alma Mater,
and thy praises, M.S.U.

When from these scenes we wander,
and twilight shadows fade,
Our mem'ry still will linger,
where light and shadows played;
In the evening oft we'll gather,
and pledge our faith anew,
Sing our love for Alma Mater,
and thy praises, MSU.

MSU FIGHT SONG

On the banks of the Red Cedar,
is a school that's known to all;
Its specialty is winning,
and those Spartans play good ball;
Spartan teams are never beaten,
all through the game they fight;
Fight for the only colors,
Green and White.
Go right thru' for MSU,
watch the points keep growing.
Spartan teams are bound to win,
they're fighting with a vim.
RAH! RAH! RAH!
See their team is weakening,
we're going to win this game.
Fight! Fight! Rah! Team, Fight!
Victory for MSU.

*The lyrics of Alma Mater were written by Bernard Traynor (MSC Athletic Department, 1925–1927). The melody is based on Donizetti's Lucia di Lammermoor. It was not until March 30, 1949, after a vote by the students, that the popular song on campus known as the MSU Shadows was finally adopted as the official Alma Mater.

Lyrics by Francis Irvin Lankey (MSU Engineering, 1916).

UNIVERSITY MACE

Michigan State University is pleased to include the University mace in commencement ceremonies. The introduction of the mace, at the 2005 Founders' Day celebration and inauguration of MSU's twentieth president, serves to commemorate the sesquicentennial celebration. The University, founded in 1855, celebrated its 150th birthday in 2005. The mace was designed by University Relations and produced by Physical Plant staff.

Historically, the mace is a symbol of authority dating from medieval times when knights carried them during processions with their kings. As the tradition grew, the mace became a ceremonial symbol of peaceful leadership, and maces were embellished with jewels and metals. Today, a university's mace is carried before the president or chancellor and platform-party dignitaries at commencement, inaugural, and other academic ceremonial processions.

The Michigan State University mace, 42 inches in length, includes important institutional symbols in its finial, crown, and shaft. The finial depicts the circular University seal, which includes an image of "Old College Hall." This oak-carved seal derives from an 1869 State Board of Agriculture (now, Board of Trustees) authorization for a woodcut to be used as the frontispiece of the college academic catalog. College Hall, built in 1856, was the first instructional building erected in the United States for the teaching of scientific agriculture. When it collapsed in 1918, John Beaumont (class of 1882) provided funds to erect Beaumont Tower in 1928 at the same location. The tower stands as a symbol of Michigan State's beginnings as the first land-grant college dedicated to teaching "agriculture and the mechanic arts" with a "liberal and practical curriculum."

The mace's crown is trimmed with a maple samara and acorn pattern carved from walnut, a pattern drawn from the "Michigan State College" limestone relief at the Abbot Road and other campus entrances. An image of Beaumont Tower lies in the crown's oak center. Below the crown is the cylindrical shaft, whose alternating, horizontal oak and walnut bands descend to a brass tip. Its oak is purported to be "Beaumont oak," that is, from one of the original saplings surrounding College Hall. Its walnut is from a tree removed to clear land for the Wharton Center for Performing Arts in 1982.

In its soaring verticality, Beaumont Tower continues to inspire the MSU community and is an appropriate symbol for the MSU mace. As President Robert S. Shaw (1928-1941) stated at the tower's dedication, it has served as "a unifying factor" to remind us, even through our individual activities, of the overall mission of Michigan State University to inspire us by "appealing to many of the better things in us" and to encourage us to "live up to higher standards, scholastically, socially, morally, and spiritually in all of our affairs."

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

In 1895, the Intercollegiate Commission, a group of leading American educators, introduced an academic costume code which by design of gowns and hoods would indicate the various degrees, and which by colors would identify the various faculties.

Three types of gowns are indicated by the code. Those worn by the bachelors have long, pointed sleeves. Those worn by masters have long, closed sleeves with the arc of a circle near the bottom. Doctoral gowns are faced with velvet. The sleeves are full, round, and open with three bars of velvet on each sleeve. The velvet facing of the bars on the sleeves may be black or the same color as the binding of the hood.

Hoods are made of material identical with the gown and are lined in the official academic color of the institution conferring the degree (e.g., green and white for MSU). If the institution has more than one color, the chevron is used to introduce the second color. Colored velvet or velveteen binds the hoods and indicates the department of faculty to which the degree pertains.

The color of the velvet of the hood is distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. For example, the trimming for the degree of Master of Science in Agriculture should be maize, representing agriculture, rather than golden yellow, representing science. Generally, the code for the velvet of the hood is the same as listed for tassels.

At Michigan State University, it is customary to identify the candidates graduating from the different areas of study by tassels of the official color as established by the Intercollegiate Code. Candidates graduating from the Honors College wear a white stole with the initials "HC." Candidates graduating "With Honor" or "With High Honor" wear a gold braid.

HONORARY DEGREES

Alumnus Eli Broad, for whom MSU's Eli Broad College of Business is named, is a renowned business leader who built two Fortune 500 companies from the ground up. Not only is he a successful entrepreneur, but Mr. Broad and his wife, Edythe, are engaged in many important philanthropic endeavors. In fall 2002, Michigan State University proudly awarded Mr. Broad an honorary doctorate of humanities.

Eli Broad and his wife, Edythe, with a total gift of $28 million, have made contemporary art available to the entire Michigan State University community and those who visit us from around the globe. The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum officially opened November 10, 2012. The world-class art museum is designed by Pritzker Prize-winning architect Zaha Hadid. For information about the facility, exhibitions, and programs, please visit broadmuseum.msu.edu.

We tell our graduates to "Come Home Often." We hope that you, and your family, will come home often and include a visit to the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATIONS

MATHEW ISHBIA

You are a highly accomplished leader in the world of business, leading a massively successful company as the President and CEO of United Wholesale Mortgage. Under your expertise, you have transformed UWM from an unranked lender with 12 people into the number one mortgage lender in the nation. Your dedication and innovative approach to leadership have contributed to the growth and betterment of mortgage brokers nationwide. Your commitment to excellence continues to be an inspiration to all Spartans.

Your educational accomplishments include a bachelor's degree in business management from Michigan State University, receiving the Academic All-Big 10 honors for three consecutive years, along with the President's Award for the highest GPA among all male athletes. As a walk-on point guard under Tom Izzo, you helped the team to a National Championship victory in 2000, a proud moment in our university's long history. Your devotion to basketball, accompanied by your business acumen, has made you a successful owner of the Phoenix Suns and Phoenix Mercury. Your numerous impacts have set a valuable example for the Spartan community.

Through your dedication to Michigan State University, you have continued to give back to the Spartan community, including numerous philanthropic contributions. Your generous benefactions toward funding the Tom Izzo Football Building, as well as the football program and charities like the V Foundation for Cancer Research are a testament to your commitment to Spartan success. Your dedication to the wider Michigan community is showcased through your contributions to the UWM Sports Complex in Pontiac and The Flint Sports Complex.

For your impressive career, continued contributions, and dedication to the greatness of our beloved university, I am pleased to award you an Honorary Doctor of Business from Michigan State University.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATIONS

DEIRDRE O'BRIEN

You are a highly accomplished and inspiring business and retail professional who has committed their life to providing expansive strategic knowledge and support throughout one of the world's most inventive and forward-thinking companies.

Your educational achievements include a bachelor's degree in operations management from Michigan State University, in addition to a Master of Business Administration degree from San Jose State University.

You have shared your expertise countless times throughout your tenure at Apple, through your assistance and innovation incorporated in the launches of some of the most progressive pieces of technology today, and your work towards empowering and fostering an environment focused on uplifting people and relationships.

You have received a multitude of accolades, such as your inclusion in Fortune's list of the most powerful women in business and Fast Company's Queer 50 list of top innovators in business and technology in recognition of your sustained career excellence. Your skill and acumen have been highly sought after and are an inspiration to all Spartans.

Your current work as Senior Vice President of Retail + People entails important decisions and direction regarding the vision and strategy of one of the nation's most noteworthy business and technology corporations and solidifies your prominence in the worlds of technology, consumerism, and business.

For your notable career in the retail and business sectors and your time, expertise, advice, and dedication to Michigan State University's success, I am pleased to award you an Honorary Doctor of Business from Michigan State University.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATIONS

JAMES SPANIOLO

You are a highly accomplished leader who has dedicated your career to public service, including transforming higher education as well as advancing the worlds of law, journalism, and philanthropy. Your work in higher education as Dean of the College of Communication Arts and Sciences at Michigan State University and President of The University of Texas at Arlington represents your commitment to academia and the development of the next generation. The partnerships and programs you have created will have an everlasting effect on the business and academic world.

Your educational accomplishments include a bachelor's degree in political science from Michigan State University, and two graduate degrees from the University of Michigan in law and public administration. Your career practicing law led you to become the first in-house general counsel of the Miami Herald.

You later served as a senior executive of the Detroit Free Press and subsequently became vice president and chief program officer of the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation – the largest funder of journalism education and press freedom.

During your tenure as Dean of the College of Communication Arts and Sciences, new centers were established, interdisciplinary programs were expanded, and alumni and donors were energized. In your 9 years as President of UT Arlington, you led the campaign to become a major research university while building campus pride and establishing strong external partnerships. Under your leadership, UT Arlington substantially increased research expenditures, enrollment, and philanthropy while fostering an inclusive culture.

In recognition of your accomplishments, you have been the recipient of numerous esteemed accolades, including The Arlington Chamber of Commerce Star, Sally Kallam Award for support of Leadership Arlington, Silver Eagle Awards for service to Arlington Community, and Scoffes Awards to the MSU faculty member who demonstrated a sustained commitment to academic success of the MSU football team. Your achievements have demonstrated your commitment to serving the community and supporting education.

In recognition of your exceptional leadership, contribution to higher education, dedication to community service, and immeasurable impact, I am pleased to award you an Honorary Doctor of Education from Michigan State University.

Graduation Honors: the current minimum grade point average for seniors graduating With Honor is 3.89 and those graduating With High Honor is 3.98 (which is approximately 20 percent of graduating seniors who have earned the highest grade point averages). Recognition of graduation honors in the commencement program is based on the grade point average of all work at MSU completed prior to the opening of the semester of graduation. To be eligible for graduation honors, transfer students must earn a minimum of 50 semester credits at MSU.

“Until the moment degrees are conferred and diplomas presented, a university and its students are in a temporary relationship. Either can disclaim the other at any time before that final moment. But when commencement is concluded, Michigan State University places its stamp of approval upon you. You become part of this University . . . forever.”

John A. Hannah (1902–1991)

President, Michigan State University (1941–1969)
